

“EVERY VALLEY SHALL BE EXALTED”
A history of the Halifax Choral Society 1818 – 2018

To mark the bicentenary 2017-2018 concert season of the Halifax Choral Society, Dr John A. Hargreaves has compiled the first ever comprehensive official history of the Choir.

Against the odds, the HCS has entered the musical record books as the first ever secular UK choral society to have a continuous series of concert seasons for the past 200 years.

This fascinating book delves deep into the workings of the choir, alongside the social history of the Halifax area and its people.

The book is being produced to a high standard and is due to be published in the autumn of 2018.

A limited number of 200 copies will be printed and, initially, be available only via HCS.

Advance orders will be distributed after publication, in order of the receipt of the completed order form and payment, until stocks are exhausted.

The cost of the book will be £25, plus £5 postage and packing.

Online advance order payment is only by PayPal – please follow the online instructions

The book will be posted to the address linked to your PayPal account once it is published later this year.
